TRAVEL INFORMATION - HOW TO ARRIVE IN TRENTO

• Traveling from Verona Airport (VRN)

For participants flying in, the closest recommended airport is Verona Valerio Catullo (VRN). Upon arrival, you can easily reach the Verona Porta Nuova train station via the Verona Airlink shuttle bus (Line 199), which runs every 20 minutes and takes about 15 minutes. From Verona Porta Nuova, there are frequent direct train connections to Trento (Regional, Frecciarossa, Italo, or DB trains), with a travel time of approximately 1 hour. A combined shuttle + train ticket can be purchased online on the Trenitalia website by selecting „Verona Aeroporto“ as the starting station.

• By Bus:

Direct long-distance bus connections (such as Flixbus or Itabus) are also available from Verona to Trento.

• By Car:

From Verona Airport, take the A22 Brennero Motorway northbound (towards Brennero) and take either the Trento Sud or Trento Nord exit (approx. 1 hour drive).
